THIS IS THE TITLE – PLEASE USE UPPER CASE ALL THROUGH

Johnny B. Good[1,*], Elisabeth Second[2], Richard Third[1]

[1]Department of Everything, University of Anywhere, Country
[2]Department of Something, University of Elsewhere, Another Country
[*]Upper Street 100, City, Country, email: for.presenting@author.only

Word count starts here. Text, acknowledgements and references should all fit into 200 words. Please use plant names in italics, for example Arabidopsis thaliana. If references are included [1], please number these consecutively [2]. Words words words, words words words. Words words words words words words words words words words. Words words words words words and even more words. Longer words and shorter words. Words words words. Words words words words words words words words words. Words words words words words words words words words words. Words words words words words words words words words words. words words words words words words. Words words words words words words words words words words. You can also use exceptionally long or extremely special words, such as floccinaucinihilipilification, which means means categorizing something as worthless trivia.
Please make sure that you include the acknowledgements and all references in the word count. For example the last word of this sentence is not the 200th but the 165th only.
Work was supported by huge and almighty grant agency (grant No. 123456).

[1] Good, J.B., Second, E., Third, W. (2015) Journal of Everything 120:12-18.
[2] Winnie, P., Robin, Ch, (2011) Another Very Good Journal 55:74-85.